

AGENDA — Smart Cities Summit 2.0: Delivering Solutions & Showcasing Leadership

7:30 – 8:00 a.m.	Registration & Breakfast
8:00 – 8:10 a.m.	Welcome Remarks: Jan De Silva , President & CEO, Toronto Region Board of Trade
8:10 – 8:25 a.m.	Opening Remarks: Mayor John Tory
8:25 – 8:30 a.m.	Introduction to Panel #1: Jan De Silva
8:30 – 9:30 a.m.	Panel #1: Next Steps on the Smart Cities Working Group Report to the City of Toronto How can Toronto do more with less and deliver services in the smartest and most affordable way while improving quality of life for all its citizens? What role can the private sector play? Carl Bodimeade, SVP, Business Development, Hatch Dr. Sara Diamond, President &amp; CEO, OCAD University Rob Meikle, Chief Information Officer, City of Toronto Mike Williams, General Manager, Economic Development &amp; Culture, City of Toronto Moderator: Justin Trevan, Associate Principal, Digital Consulting Leader Canada, Arup &amp; Co-Chair, Smart Cities Working Group
9:30 – 9:35 a.m.	Introduction to Marc Miller: Jan De Silva
9:35 – 9:50 a.m.	Keynote #1: Marc Miller , Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Infrastructure & Communities
9:50 – 9:55 a.m.	Introduction to Panel #2: Jan De Silva
9:55 – 10:55 a.m.	Panel #2: The Building Blocks for Participating in Canada’s Smart Cities Challenge Competition What are key lessons learned from winning cities in the US and Europe that are applicable to Toronto? What are the key ingredients for Toronto to position itself to win Smart Cities Challenge competition? This panel of senior business leaders will comment on Toronto’s unique challenges and will identify strategies for success. Birgit Kredel, Corporate Vice President, Siemens AG, Munich Dr. Patricia McCarney, President &amp; CEO, World Council on City Data Dave Telka, Managing Director, Canada Health &amp; Public Sector Digital and Client Account Lead, Accenture Omar A. Rashid, Lead for City of Toronto, Microsoft Canada Inc. Moderator: Steve Van Binsbergen, Senior Director, Ontario Public Sector, Rogers
10:55 – 11:00 a.m.	Call to Breakout Sessions: Jan De Silva
11:00 – 11:10 a.m.	Move to Breakout Sessions & Coffee Break
11:10 – 12:40 p.m.	Interactive Breakout Session: How Do We Deliver Smart City Solutions Participants will be split into five topics: BREAKOUT #1: COLLABORATE—Working Together How can we improve collaboration between government, the private sector, NGOs and academia to make Toronto a smarter region? Facilitators: Stewart McKendry, Management Consultant, Public Sector, PwC Grant Coffey, Manager, Strategic Planning, Policy &amp; Standards, City of Toronto

AGENDA — Smart Cities Summit 2.0: Delivering Solutions & Showcasing Leadership

	BREAKOUT #2: CATALYZE—Developing Talent How can we better develop, attract and retain digital talent in the Toronto region? Facilitators: Andrew Do, Policy Advisor at Brookfield Institute for Innovation and Entrepreneurship Linda Hazzan, Director, Communications, Programming &amp; Customer Engagement, Toronto Public Library BREAKOUT #3: CONNECT—Innovation in the Public Sector How can we tackle key policies such as procurement and funding to improve innovation in Toronto and across all levels of government? Facilitator: Michael Cihra, Vice President, Internet of Things, TELUS BREAKOUT #4: CO-CREATE—Incubator Ecosystem How can we harness Toronto’s first class education and innovation ecosystem to foster the development of start-ups and the scaling up of local high tech firms? Facilitators: David Kamnitzer, Director &amp; Sr. Practice Lead, Intelligent Systems IBI Group Susan Viegas, Senior Advisor, Toronto Economic Development and Culture, City of Toronto BREAKOUT #5: COMMUNICATE—Marketing Toronto How can we develop the smarter Toronto narrative to raise the profile of Toronto as a smart city on the world stage? Facilitator: Michael Sutherland, Director, Urban Solutions, Hatch
12:50 – 1:30 p.m.	Lunch & Networking
1:30 – 1:35 p.m.	Introduction to Keynote #2: Franco Amalfi , Director, Strategic Government Programs, Oracle
1:35- 2:05 p.m.	Keynote #2: David Graham, Deputy Chief Operating Officer – Neighbourhood Services, City of San Diego on State of the Art in Smart Cities An internationally recognized civic leader shares experiences and insights on what a sustainable, innovative, smart city looks like.
2:05 – 2:10 p.m.	Introduction to Panel #3: Nick Reid , Executive Director, Ryerson Urban Water
2:10 – 3:10 p.m.	Panel #3: Smart Cities Incubator How can a smart cities ecosystem tackle civic and corporate challenges? Highlights of new ideas and Toronto-based initiatives already taking place. Mike Cotton, Director of Zone Startups Sports &amp; Media, Ryerson Futures Bilal Khan, Executive Director, One Eleven Gabe Sawhney, Executive Director, Code for Canada Kristina Verner, Vice President, Innovation, Sustainability &amp; Prosperity, Waterfront Toronto Facilitator: Tom Rand, Managing Partner, ArcTern Ventures, MaRS and ArcTern Ventures
3:10 – 3:20 p.m.	Closing Remarks: Jan De Silva
3:20 – 4:30 p.m.	Networking Reception